Automated Driving Track at RTO East operational

Mysuru, Jan. 24 (MTY&BCT)- After a delay of more than five years since the preliminary works were initiated, the city's first and State's third Automated Vehicle Driving Test Track was inaugurated this morning at Regional Transport Office (East) in city at Rajivnagar on the Outer Ring Road.

It is a fully-automated track where there is no manual intervention at any stage and Driving Licences are issued in an automated process. Only the postal communication with the licence applicants will be manual.

The track was inaugurated by Deputy Chief Minister Lakshman M. Savadi who holds the Transport portfolio.

The track is fully functional and will be operated from tomorrow. The track has been built at an eight-acre plot that was handed over by Mysuru Urban Development Authority (MUDA) and the track per-se was built at a cost of Rs. 5.6 crore. It is a joint venture of the Transport Department and the KSRTC. The track was conceptualised in 2015 when the need of an automated track was felt.

The track technology has been developed by Cascade Systems and Communications, Bengaluru and there are 17 employees from the company who will operate and maintain the system on a day-to-day basis.

From start to end, fully automated process

Once a person applies for a Driving Licence online, he gets an SMS on the date of the driving test. At the RTO East, he is given a bar-coded card with an automated special identification number. He has to flash the card at the entry of the track and register his thumb impression at the designated slot for the automated system to open.

Now, ride on e-carts inside Gangothri campus

Mysuru, Jan. 24 (RK&BCT)- How about some e-cart vehicles or battery-operated buggies to go around the vast and green campus of Manasagangothri? The University of Mysore has procured two such vehicles to ferry people from point-to-point inside the campus. No University in the State has this facility and it is the first-of-its-kind.

Hail and be hassle-free

Cities across the world seem to have crossed the common feature of hosting both human beings and motorised vehicles in equal numbers. Now, it is the turn of villages to share that feature in foreseeable future, given the steadily rising number of rustics taking to reach the cities on two-wheelers in preference to walking and also travelling by public transport, a sight that is emerging in Mysuru. In addition, even vendors of consumer needs including vegetables, milk and knick-knacks, not to forget delivery boys tossing newspaper into the front yard of subscribers as they zoom on two-wheelers are no longer walkers.

The issues of motorised vehicles as personal possession on multiple counts such as heightened pollution of ambient air due to emission, traffic snarls, road mishaps both within city limits and on Highways, causing death and injuries resulting in trauma for dependants of wage-earning members of families, cluttering of space in central business district of cities, threat to safety of pedestrians, consumption of imported fuel burdening the Nation's treasury and so on have tended to be an insurmountable challenge to the law-makers.

The Nation's automobile industry is voicing its concern about significant reduction in the sales of its various products, but the inventory already in the store is large enough to enable more people to own their personal transport, thanks to aggressive advertisements causing impulse buying, vehicle loans by banks and other financial agencies, glitzy showrooms and the irrepressible desire to own an automobile.

Millennials in the land's population, falling in the 22-37-year bracket, considered to be optimistic and seen pandered to by their affluent parents are major contributors to the boom in vehicular population in urban spaces. According to a recent study by a global agency, about 64 per cent of this generation in India, already owning a vehicle are now questioning the need to own a vehicle as opposed to 57 per cent in 2019. Steep increase in the cost of owning and commuting in personal motorised vehicle is said to have triggered that change in their mindset. More importantly, according to the study, the number of people using ride-hailing services in many cities, including those in the class of Mysuru, is showing a rising trend, currently estimated at 57 per cent of the millennials.

The benefits of saying good-bye to personal transport and getting into the habit of hailing vehicles for commuting don't need any elaboration. The change over, at an increased rate, particularly in the metros, is long overdue, while it contributes to bring down unemployment of educated youth to some extent.

EDITOR'S BOTTOMLINE

Representative bodies of journalists are bracing themselves to legally contest entry curbs imposed by the Government on accredited Finance Ministry reporters on entering North Block. The Press Council of India (PCI) has decided to hear a complaint from various journalist bodies, including the Press Association, Press Club of India and Foreign Correspondents' Club against the Finance Ministry, which imposed these curbs in July last year. The Press Association has been summoned by the PCI for a hearing on Monday and journalists may argue that the diktat has sparked a fear in the minds of bureaucrats to officially meet them. They may also make a strong case that most other Ministries have no such restriction for accredited journalists.

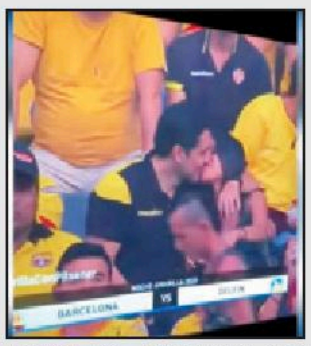
Crazy cat keeps owner captive for two days

Arkhangelsk: A Russian woman was unable to leave her kitchen for two days after her pet cat started behaving aggressively and tried to attack her whenever she tried to exit the room.

On Sunday, January 19, a local resident noticed a woman signaling for help in the window of a third floor apartment, at 9/6 Suvorov street. After catching the attention of the passerby, the woman explained that her pet cat had started acting crazy two days before, and would try to attack her whenever she tried leaving the kitchen. Sick of waiting for the feline to calm down, she finally decided to ask for help.

Rescue personnel managed to catch the aggressive feline in a blanket, to evacuate its owner. The cat was placed in a cage and handed over to the woman, with the recommendation that she see a veterinarian about its bizarre behavior.

Kiss cam catches infidelity at soccer match



Quito: An Ecuadorian man was caught red handed cheating on his partner with another woman, when the half-time kiss cam showed them kissing in the stands during a soccer match.

Barcelona of Guayaquil, Ecuador's very own Barcelona soccer club, made its traditional yearly presentation during a friendly match against rivals Delfin, one of last season's revelations. It was a good game, but it was surprisingly overshadowed by something that occurred during the half-time break.

The kiss-cam showed a young couple making out in the stands, but things got weird when the man saw himself on one of the jumbo screens. He immediately removed his arm from around the young lady, his smile went away instantly, and the two just started looking in opposite directions, like they didn't know each other.

Really...?

- The hottest chili pepper in the world is so hot it could kill you.
- The "weapons-grade" Dragon's Breath chili pepper is so hot it's downright deadly. If you ate one, it could potentially cause a type of anaphylactic shock, burning the airways and closing them up.
- "I've tried it on the tip of my tongue and it just burned and burned," said Mike Smith, the hobby grower who invented the Dragon's Breath along with scientists from Nottingham University. So why make such an impractical pepper? As it turns out, the chili was initially developed to be used in medical treatment as an anaesthetic that can numb the skin.

Ready Concrete Mixer Plants flouting rules

Sir,

I am an employee working at a private company on KRS Road, Metagalli. My office is located opposite to Government Tool Room and Training Centre (GTTC).

There are two Ready Concrete Mixer Plants operating on the same road. A number of loads of heavy concrete mixers ply on this stretch daily. Half of the road has become unusable for the public because of heaps of concrete droppings, big potholes caused by movement of the heavy mixers and small jelly spilled all over the busy road.

It seems these Plants are not following any of the rules set by the Pollution Control Board. Even the Karnataka Industrial Area Development Board (KIADB) situated very near to the area is also in deep slumber.

I request the officials concerned to take action at least now and help the commuters on this road to have a safe ride.

Labourer from Assam kills wife, daughter in Kodagu

Flees after dumping bodies into school well

Virajpet, Jan. 24 (KS)- A labourer, working at a coffee estate at Kolatodu Bygodu village near Virajpet in Kodagu, has allegedly killed his wife and daughter and has fled from the place after dumping the bodies into a well at a school nearby.

The accused, claiming to be from Assam had come to the estate of one, Mukkatira Devaiah at Kolatodu village along with his wife and daughter seeking a job about two weeks ago. Devaiah, who employed him, also gave the family a place to stay at the labourers' quarters. The accused had identified himself as Ali.

On last Monday, Ali came to Devaiah and told him that his wife and daughter had gone to the market. He then asked Devaiah to give him Rs. 13,000 which Ali wanted urgently to send to his native village in Assam. Following Ali's request, Devaiah gave him the money and Ali left the place and later, neither Ali nor his wife and daughter returned.

Yesterday morning, foul smell began to emanate from a well at the village school premises. When teachers and local residents looked inside the well, they found two bodies floating and immediately informed the Virajpet Rural Police.

When the Police reached the spot, Devaiah, who was also present there, identified the bodies as that of Ali's 40-year-old wife and 15-year-old daughter.

Police have suspected that Ali may have killed his daughter by hitting her on the head with a lethal weapon and strangling his wife with a nylon rope.

Virajpet Rural Police, who have registered a case against Ali, are investigating.

India becomes a Republic

The First President, The First Prime Minister and The Initial Years...

By
Dr. C.D. Sreenivasa Murthy

India gained Independence on 15th August 1947 but technically it was not yet a fully free nation. The newly-independent country had a dominion status and King George VI of Britain was its nominal head. The process of giving it a Constitution and making India a Republic had started even before the day of Independence and culminated on 26th November 1949 when the Constituent Assembly adopted the Constitution of India. By this time three people had emerged as tall and revered leaders of the Nation. Prime Minister Jawaharlal Nehru had governed wisely in a democratic way, contributed immensely to the framing of the Constitution and was extremely popular with the Indian masses.

An equally popular and beloved leader was the Deputy Prime Minister and the Home Minister Sardar Vallabhbhai Patel and he had a big hold on the members of the Congress party which was far more than that of Nehru. As the first Home Minister and Deputy Prime Minister of India, Patel organised relief efforts for refugees fleeing to India from Pakistan and worked to restore peace. He led the task of forging a United India, successfully integrating into the newly-independent Nation approximately 565 self-governing Princely States. His commitment to National Integration in the newly-independent India earned him the sobriquet "Iron Man of India." He has also earned the name as the "patron saint of India's civil servants" for having established the modern all-India services system. Unfortunately, he died in December 1950.

By the time the Constitution was adopted, a third equally popular leader had arrived on the national scene and that person was Dr. Rajendra Prasad. An advocate from Patna, Dr. Prasad had sacrificed a lucrative practice at Calcutta and Patna High Courts, for the freedom struggle with the Mahatma and had spent many years in jail. With his pleasant countenance, patience and deft handling of the Constituent Assembly as its President, he had won the admiration of the Congress party and the Indian public. He was called "Ajatha Shatru" for he had no enemies.

Dr. Bhimrao Ramji Ambedkar was the first Law Minister of Independent India. Probably he is the highest qualified Law Minister or for that matter, the highest qualified Central Minister in Indian history. He had a Doctorate in Economics from Columbia University, New York, a second Doctorate from the London School of Economics and then studied Law and qualified as a barrister from London. He was known for his work for the cause of dalits, labour and the cause of women and for his erudition and the books he authored. Maternity Benefit Bill was introduced by Dr. B.R. Ambedkar in 1942 during his tenure as Labour Minister in Governor General's Executive Council. But he earned great renown when, as the Chairman of the Drafting Committee, he got the Indian Constitution approved unanimously by the Constituent Assembly and earned the title "Father of the Indian Constitution."

As the Law Minister, he vehemently opposed putting Article 370 in the Indian Constitution and the granting of special status to Jammu & Kashmir. He did not even participate in the discussion on Article 370. Dr. Ambedkar was determined about the Hindu Code Bill. It was believed that Nehru and Ambedkar argued about the matter quite often, anger among them was not just about the Bill. Dr. Ambedkar came from London and New York with Ph.Ds in Economics and wanted a major role in issues related to the country's economic planning but Nehru was against his inclusion in India's economic planning. Nehru favoured a Soviet style Socialism with Central Planning, but Ambedkar views were different. Dr. Ambedkar was also against Nehru's foreign policies. He resigned from Nehru's Cabinet in October 1951 and started preparations for the Lok Sabha elections by creating a separate party of his own. His resignation speech to the Parliament is thought-provoking and relevant even today.

All these and the other Founding Fathers had differing visions for the future of this new Nation. One of the major reasons for the political differences between Dr. Rajendra Prasad and Pandit Jawaharlal Nehru was the attitude of both of them towards the significance of religion in the society. Nehru had been highly influenced by planning and progress of Soviet Russia after the revolution of 1914. He favoured modern Socialism and believed that attitude towards religion was the main reason for India's poverty and backwardness. According to him, after Independence, India had to move forward with a Secular outlook and the country needed large industries, planned cities, hospitals, schools and laboratories over places of worship. Rajendra Prasad also favoured progress, but not at the cost of core Indian culture and people's beliefs. He was very religious. Vallabhbhai Patel's thoughts were somewhere between these two approaches.

The Hindu Code Bill

The major public confrontations between Nehru and Prasad started with the Hindu Code Bills. Dr. Ambedkar presented the draft in October 1947 in the Constituent Assembly and Nehru supported him. They wanted this Bill to be part of the Constitution. Under this, a rule code for all Hindus was to be created. As the President of the Constituent Assembly, Dr. Rajendra Prasad intervened. He suggested that such rules should only be created after taking to account the opinion of masses. He argued that the traditions are prevalent in many forms, hence, to make the Code Bills successful people must approve it. He was also of the opinion that such a code should apply to all sections of society and not merely the Hindus.

The debate on the Code Bill spread all over the country and conservative religious leaders opposed it vigorously. Nehru noticed the controversy surrounding the Bill and at the time when Constitution was to be filled with the Hindu Code Bill, he took a tough stand. Furious with Nehru's attitude, Rajendra Prasad wrote a letter to him. In the letter, he described Nehru as unjust and undemocratic. Prasad shared the letter with Sardar Patel before sending it to Nehru. Patel read the letter and suggested him not to act angrily and withhold the letter. He advised him to raise his disagreement in party's forum. Rajendra Prasad was unhappy with this advice of Patel, but followed it and kept back the letter. Patel was a shrewd politician and had his own plans. Finally Nehru could not get the Bill included in the Constitution.

Presidential Election-1950

It was already September 1949. The Constitution was being completed and the Presidential elections had to be held soon after that. Patel wanted Prasad to be the President. Nehru, at that time, favoured the then Governor General Rajagopalachari to be the first President of India. Chakravarthi Rajagopalachari had not participated in the Quit India Movement and hence was not popular with the Congress party members. Patel and Prasad had a stronghold on the organisation, even more than Nehru. But Patel did not want any direct confrontation with Nehru. After all, Nehru was the face of Congress and the most popular leader among the people. But Patel's strategy was successful and the Congress party chose Rajendra Prasad as the President of India. On January 26, 1950, at 10.24 am, Rajendra Prasad created history by becoming the first President of the new Republic. The Constituent Assembly started working soon after the completion of the Constitution as a Legislative body till the general elections of 1952. During 1950-52, before the general elections, the debate on Hindu Code Bills was still continuously going on.

R-Day rehearsal held at Bannimantap Grounds

Mysuru, Jan.24 (RK&DM)- With the city bracing up for the all important Jan.26 Republic Day parade, the City Police held a rehearsal of the parade at Bannimantap Torch-light Parade Grounds here this morning.

Yesterday too, a similar exercise was conducted at the same venue and today was the second day. However, there will be no such rehearsal tomorrow.

Today's rehearsal saw a total of 24 platoons drawn from Mounted Police, KSRP, CAR, DAR, KPA, N.R, K.R, Devaraja sub-divisions, Traffic, Home Guards, Excise, Fire and Emergency Services and Forest Departments taking part in the Parade with each platoon having 27 members.

Apart from the Police, NCC Cadets (Army, Navy and Air Force) from different schools and colleges and children in uniforms from Navodaya School, Police Public School and Bharath Seva Dal, totalling over a thousand took part in rehearsal.

Mounted Police ACP Shailendra was the Parade Commander. M. Babu, retired Assistant Sub-Inspector of Police and Manjunath, Mysuru Akashavani Staff, were the Commentators.

The Parade was followed by a cultural presentation featuring a number of events. Students from Marimallappa, Pramathi and Royal Concorde Schools presented a scintillating show.

Automated Driving Track

Prior to this, an automated test screen opens to the applicant where he has to answer three questions and clear the test before riding the vehicle inside the track. For the two-wheeler test, there are 58 poles placed on the sides and at frequent intervals. A candidate is allowed to touch 6 poles and if the ninth pole falls, he is declared fail and has to re-apply for the licence.

Rigorous tests

Both two-wheeler and four-wheeler licence applicants have to undergo tests including Serpentine Track, Traffic Signal Test, Track Test, '8' Track Test, Reverse 'S' test, Kerb Parking Test, 3-point Turn, UP Gradient and there are specific time duration for each test that ranges from 60 seconds to 9 minutes. Some feats have to be completed within 120 seconds and an applicant committing a small mistake or a miss-judgement is declared fail.

The tracks are designed in such a way that the manoeuvring skills of the driver are tested. Some of the tracks have been designed in '8' shape to test the skills of negotiating a hairpin bend. Road humps have been laid and there are elevated tracks that resemble a steep gradient. At the gradients, drivers are asked to stop their vehicles at the middle and will be asked to proceed after some time. This is to test their ability to steer ahead in real-life situations.

Sensors and scanners

Automated sensors and scanners have been installed at the sides of the track at vital points along with a series of CCTV cameras to monitor the driving. The sensors have alarms and it will beep if a driver faults while giving the test. Every move of the driver is scanned and recorded and one error leads to disqualification. On an average over 440 applicants for two-wheeler licence can be tested per day and over 200 four-wheeler applicants can be tested daily.

Additional Transport Commissioner C.P. Narayanaswamy said that the automated system will ensure transparency and test the physical and mental strength, knack and presence of mind of the applicants. Decisions are taken on track, in a real-time situation and this endurance test will minimise road accidents, he added.

The inauguration event was presided over by MLA G.T. Devegowda. MLC Sandesh Nagaraj, ZP Vice-President Gowramma Somashekar, Transport Commissioner N. Shivakumar and RTO East K.S. Soundarya were present.

Sedition: Nalini bail plea adjourned to afternoon

Mysuru, Jan.24 (RK&DM)- The City's Second ADJ Court adjourned the hearing on the regular bail plea filed by Nalini Balakumar, who has been booked for sedition after she displayed a 'Free Kashmir' placard during an anti-CAA protest at Manasagangothri recently, to today afternoon.

The bail plea came up for hearing at 11 am today with a team of lawyers headed by Senior advocate from Bengaluru C.S. Dwarakanath, who had signed the Vakalatnama, appearing on behalf of the accused Nalini. But as Public Prosecutor M. Anand Kumar could not appear on behalf of the Government due to his other legal engagements, Judge Gerald Rudolf Mendonsa, adjourned the hearing to 3 pm.

Nalini, who has been granted an interim bail by a City Court earlier, was not present today. However, over 25 students of Manasagangothri had come to the Court out of curiosity to watch the proceedings.

It may be mentioned here that the Mysore Bar Association had recently passed a resolution barring any member of the Association from taking up the case for Nalini. The jurisdictional Lakshmipuram Police had provided security around the Court Hall.

e-carts at Gangothri

Free ride for seniors and physically challenged; Rs. 5 fare for other buggy users

The two vehicles, costing Rs. 8.5 lakh each, have been procured from Bengaluru and the trial runs have been completed. The buggies will be officially dedicated to the campus on Sunday (Jan. 26) at 8.45 am. The e-carts will be launched by Yaduveer Krishnadatta Chamaraja Wadiyar. University of Mysore (UoM) Vice-Chancellor Prof. G. Hemantha Kumar will preside.

The battery-operated carts have been purchased by the University to make the main campus 'green' premises by introducing an eco-friendly transport mode. While one vehicle will be stationed on Bogadi Road near Kuvempu Statue (South Gate), the other will be parked at West Gate near the gate in front of Sri Jayachamarajendra College of Engineering (SJCE).

Speaking to Star of Mysore from America this morning where he had gone to attend an official engagement, Prof. Hemantha Kumar said that the vehicles will ferry professors, parents of students, lecturers, public, students and scholars. A point-to-point charge of Rs. 5 has been fixed and if the journey is continued, Rs. 3 will be charged per person. Senior citizens and physically infirm persons and physically challenged individuals will get a free ride, he said.

Till Jan. 31, the buggy rides inside the campus will be free of cost and the fee will be levied from Feb. 1, the VC added. A private agency has been entrusted with the responsibility of handling and maintaining the vehicles and collecting revenue. Drivers will be appointed by the agency and daily revenue will be handed over to a designated branch of the University.

Each vehicle can seat six persons at a time including the driver and the vehicle will be under CCTV surveillance. The campus has 42 post-graduation departments with over 2,000 students, including those from over 30 countries. The buggies are an added transport mode, and students and the staff are free to use their vehicles within the campus, the VC explained.

UoM Ladies Sports Hostel inauguration on Jan. 26

A new Ladies Hostel of Department of Physical Education and Sports Sciences, UoM, will also be inaugurated on Jan. 26 at 8.30 am by Yaduveer Wadiyar. The hostel has been built at a cost of Rs. 1.75 crore and has 18 rooms. It has ground plus first floor and each room can accommodate six women.

The hostel is located on Saraswathipuram Main Road opposite Fire Brigade within the campus of Sarvepalli Radhakrishna Smaraka Bhavan. The hostel is equipped with a modern dining hall and better accommodation facilities.

Till now, the ladies who were attached to Department of Physical Education were sent to different University hostels and this had become a problem. Realising the need of a separate hostel, an exclusive hostel has been built, said H. Kumar, Executive Engineer, UoM.

Mandya, Jan. 24 (Nagaiah& KS)- The Mandya West Police team, led by Inspector Venkatesh, who is investigating the supari killing case, have arrested four persons including the wife of the victim. New District Hospital without medical equipment and staff inaugurated

Mysuru, Jan.24 (YDS&DM)-State Health Minister B. Sriramulu inaugurated the new District Hospital built in the premises of ED (Epidemic Diseases) Hospital on KRS road here last evening.

Although the building was inaugurated, the new hospital does not have either the medical equipments nor the medical and para-medical staff at present and hence, there will be a delay in the functioning of the hospital. The government has set in motion the procurement of medical equipment and the hospital is expected will be functional in a couple of months.

Speaking on the occasion, Sriramulu said that there will be a change in the pattern of appointment of doctors, with the government deciding to make appointments directly instead of selection through KPSC. Noting that appointments through KPSC is a long process, he said that 3,500 doctors will be appointed shortly and they will be posted at district & taluk hospitals and also at Primary Health Centres.

The Minister further said that the State government has sanctioned Rs.25 crore for establishing a generic medicine outlet and a blood bank. Stating that doctors serving in remote places will be given more pay, he added that several government doctors are serving at private hospitals too and their first priority should be to serve at the government hospitals where poor patients come for quality treatment.

Referring to the role of housekeeping staff in keeping the hospitals clean, Sriramulu said that there are complaints from these staff that they are paid only half of what the government pays to the Contractor. He instructed the concerned authorities that the outsourced house-keeping staff be paid in full.

MP Pratap Simha, who was also present at the inauguration, said that Prime Minister Narendra Modi's health initiative, 'Ayushman Bharat' has been implemented throughout the country; but when Ramesh Kumar was the Health Minister earlier, he changed the scheme's name to 'Ayushman Bharat-Arogya Karnataka,' which posed a lot a problems for patients as private hospitals asked for referrals from Government hospitals to provide treatment. The MP thus demanded dropping of the referral clause from the scheme, which in turn will benefit patients across the country.

Lauding Sriramulu for introducing 109 Ambulance, which provided a great impetus for health care in the State, Simha recalled that former Chief Minister Siddharamaiah and former Chamaraja MLA Vasu were chiefly responsible for the establishment of this District Hospital. The MP also demanded up gradation of K.R. Hospital in the coming days.

District Minister V. Somanna, MLAs G.T. Devegowda and L. Nagendra, Deputy Commissioner Abhiram G. Sankar, MCC Commissioner Gurudatta Hegde, Deputy Mayor C. Sridhar, Corporator Srinivas, Health and Family Welfare Department Chief Engineer M.Ganesh, DHO Dr. Venkatesh, Dr. B.S. Pushpalatha and others were present.

Sriramulu inaugurates developmental works at H.D.Kote

Earlier on Thursday, Sriramulu inaugurated a slew of developmental works and laid foundation other works at H.D.Kote in the district. Speaking on the occasion, he said that the Government plans to set up blood banks and to build dormitories at all district hospitals in the State. He further said that all ASHA workers will be distributed sarees and waistcoats.

District Minister V.Somanna, who accompanied Sriramulu, in his address said, that both the Central and State governments are working for the development of H.D.Kote taluk, which is considered as one of the most backward taluks of the State.

H.D.Kote MLA Anil Chikkamadu, Former Minister and District BJP President M.Shivanna, ZP President Parimala Shyam, former ZP President Nayeema Sultana, Taluk Panchayat President Manjula Devanna, Deputy Commissioner Abhiram G.Sankar, SP C.B.Ryshyanth and others were present.

Mysuru, Jan.24 (SPN&DM)-Hugely impressed by the architecture at Jayadeva Cardiology Hospital on KRS Road, Deputy Chief Minister Govind Karjol said, that the hospital was no less than a corporate hospital.

Speaking to press persons after visiting the hospital recently, Karjol said he was wonderstruck by the magnificent architecture of the hospital and was happy to note that the hospital is functioning ably under the guidance of Dr.C.N. Manjunath.

Pointing out that a similar 400-bed Jayadeva Hospital is coming up at Kalaburagi, he said that the Government is spending huge funds for running government hospitals and was ready to sanction more funds wherever necessary.

Stating that PM Modi had held a video-conference with the Health Minister and officials on Monday night,Karjol said that the government plans to set up super-speciality hospitals in all districts of the State.

Referring to Social Welfare Department hostels, the Deputy CM said that most of the hostels in the district are being run at rented buildings and the Mysuru DC has been instructed to identify sites for construction of these hostels on government lands.

'Ward Engineer can be fined up to Rs. 1 lakh for building-plan violation'

MCC Deputy Commissioner Shivananda Murthy speaks at NAREDCO workshop on RERA

Mysuru, Jan. 24 (YDS&BCT)- 'Apart from levying penalty on property owners who have violations in their buildings- differences between the Approved Plan and the Completion Report (CR) -there is a provision of imposing a fine of up to Rs. 1 lakh on the respective Ward Engineers,' said Shivananda Murthy, Deputy Commissioner of Mysore City Corporation (MCC).

He was speaking at a workshop on RERA (Real Estate Regulatory Authority) organised by NAREDCO (National Real Estate Development Council), Mysuru last evening. He said that the MCC has already begun the process of levying fines for violations at all zones where the property identification surveys have been completed.

"It is the responsibility of the respective Ward Engineers to ensure that there are no violations at any buildings under his or her jurisdiction. Such buildings will be demolished and fines will be levied," he reiterated.

RERA guidelines are based on improving transparency in the real estate industry. "Apartment plans can be sanctioned within the time-bound 7 to 15 days and commencement certificate will be issued. If the projects are constructed according to the plan, Khatha will be issued after collecting tax under MCC norms without any delay," he added.

He also suggested NAREDCO to come up with ideas that can improve better co-ordination and effective implementation of real estate projects.

RERA was implemented in July 2017 and as per this, all builders and developers have to register their projects under RERA.

"This workshop dispels certain myths and misunderstandings and addresses practical issues which need to be clarified and effectively adopted for the proper functioning of real estate industry," said T. Vinay, Chartered Accountant and a RERA consultant from Bengaluru.

The workshop also highlighted various problems that the builders and developers are facing to file their projects under RERA and also clarified a few issues leading to better understanding.

NAREDCO Mysuru Unit Chairman, N. Divyesh, who spoke on the occasion, said, 'NAREDCO Mysuru wing which started in 2016 with 11 members, now has 59 members and has been successful in conducting more than 24 workshops on matters pertaining to RERA, smart cities, fast track technologies, etc.'

The workshop was well attended by builders and developers of Mysuru and also well represented by various industry bodies. NAREDCO State President M. Satish Kumar, President T.G. Adisheshan Gowda, Advocate Dhirendra Mehta, NAREDCO Past President Manoj Lodha and others were present.

Cornavirus eclipses Lunar New Year holiday in China

Beijing, Jan. 24- The death toll in China's viral outbreak of the Cornavirus has risen to 25 with the number of confirmed cases leaping to 830, the government said on Friday.

The respiratory virus emerged from a seafood and animal market in the central city of Wuhan which has a population of 11 million. Cases have been reported as far away as the United States.

The markedly higher numbers were released just hours after the World Health Organization stopped short of declaring the situation to be a global health emergency.

China has effectively quarantined nearly 20 million people across Wuhan and some nearby cities in response to the virus and announced measures to curb its spread nationwide as hundreds of millions of people began travelling across the country this week for the Lunar New Year holiday.

The Indian Embassy in Beijing said it is closely monitory the situation and has launched two hotline numbers (+8618612083629 and +8618612083617) for those who have any of their kin stranded in China or other queries regarding the virus outbreak.

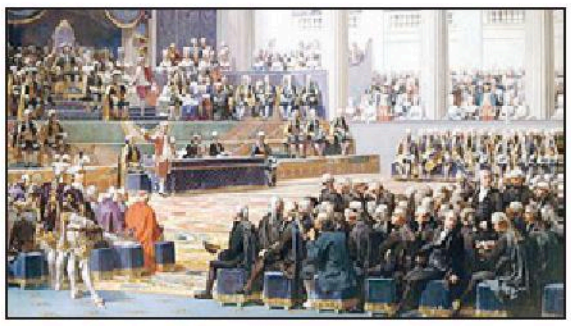
WORD OF THE DAY

Convoke



Pronunciation: kun-VOHK.
Meaning: To call together to a meeting.
Origin: The Latin noun vox ("voice") and verb vocare ("to call") have given rise to many English words, including convoke. Other English descendants of those roots are usually spelled with voc and have to do with speaking or calling. Thus, a vocation is a special calling to a type of work; an evocative sight or smell calls forth memories and feelings; and a vocal ensemble is a singing group. Provoke, irrevocable, equivocate, and vociferous are a few of the other descendants of vox and vocare. The related noun convocation refers to a group of people who have been called together.
Example: "The gloves were off now, and to mobilize every possible moral and military advantage, the pope convoked a general church Council in Rome for 1241." — Adrian House

THE ODD WORD

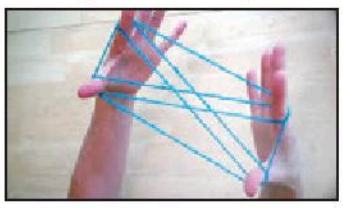
Cacaesthesia

Morbid sensation.

PHRASE OF THE DAY

Cat's Cradle

Meaning: A box-like shape which is made by from twisting a loop of string around their fingers. It is usually played by two players, although some variations may be played by one.



Origin: This is a popular pastime for children throughout the world. The origin of the phrase or of the game aren't known, but both are certainly quite old. The first reference to the phrase is in Abraham Tucker's The light of nature pursued, 1768:
"An ingenious play they call cat's cradle; one ties the two ends of a packthread together, and then winds it about his fingers, another with both hands takes it off perhaps in the shape of a gridiron, the first takes it from him again in another form, and so on alternately changing the packthread into a multitude of figures whose names I forget, it being so many years since I played at it myself."

'For a bite of food'

Monologue play on Jan.26

Then, the dejected man on his way back home, ends up buying 'mutton.' Is it really 'mutton' what the man bought and was it worth eating it is what the play is about.

The story also revolves around how religion, politics and policies define the life of a common man.

The play, directed by Leela Alneej, has music by Jyorja Chiyampi and stage lighting by Anthony Kent.
